

Congress of the United States
Washington, DC 20515

July 12, 2016

Chief David Brown
Dallas Police Department
1400 S. Lamar St.
Dallas, Texas 75215

Dear Chief Brown,

We are writing first and foremost to send our deepest condolences to the Dallas Police Department following the tragic attack against your fellow officers on July 7th. Our prayers go out to the victims' families, the wounded officers, and all officers within the Dallas law enforcement community.

We also thank you. Thank you for keeping your communities safe and doing so with the utmost respect and professionalism. You are appreciated by us and the communities you serve. Your job is critical to our democracy and the safety of our loved ones. When a police officer puts on his or her uniform, he or she is not just getting ready for work – they are exposing themselves to threats they would not face otherwise. Individuals who are a part of law enforcement embody the heart of a servant, always sacrificing and working on behalf of those in need, regardless of an individual's political views, race, religion, or criminal history.

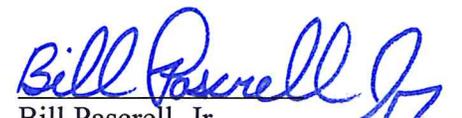

As members of Congress, we understand the importance of protecting the public while also looking out for the safety of our first responders. Whether it's responding to an act of terrorism, a natural disaster, or daily patrol duties, our communities depend on the preparedness and capabilities of our first responders to keep them safe. In turn, we must work together to support our first responders.

As the city of Dallas and the loved ones of the fallen try to process this terrible tragedy and begin to heal, please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you.

Sincerely,
